Your Natural Wedding Place

METRO
Parks

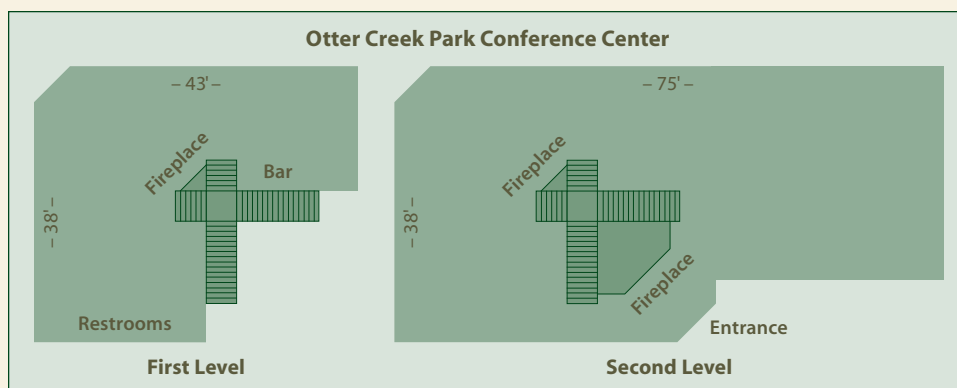

Otter Creek Park's picturesque Conference Center is the perfect natural setting for your wedding ceremony and reception. Working with our staff, you'll be able to plan the perfect indoor or outdoor wedding for a crowd of any size.

Otter Creek's staff will work to provide the best for you and your guests.

About the Conference Center

Otter Creek Park is located just minutes south of the Gene Snyder Freeway in Meade County, and is considered one of the region's great jewels. The focal point of this 2,600-acre park is the Conference Center, with panoramic views of the Ohio River. This spacious facility is ideal for both weddings and receptions. The large patio, with the gently winding river in the background, makes for a beautiful outdoor wedding. The large two-level indoor meeting space also offers a great view of the river.

Our indoor meeting space makes a great rehearsal or reception dining room.

Planning Your Special Day

Our staff is available to assist in your planning, and will help you select the perfect caterer, or assist the caterer of your choice. We can provide tables, chairs, linens and a great attention to detail.

Lodging

Two- and four-bedroom cabins offer a rustic and enjoyable overnight experience.

Our Conference Center patio - the perfect backdrop for your ceremony.

See It for Yourself

In order to truly appreciate the beauty of Otter Creek Park, you must see it in person. Call our sales office to arrange a personal tour of our facilities. We'll show you why Otter Creek Park is the perfect setting for your special day!
